Important questions

- What main points are you trying to communicate to your audience?
- How can images and video help you communicate?
- How can you improve the accessibility of your presentation?

Video production steps

*Feel free to ask questions at any point
during the presentation!*

Steps

- 1) Draft a Script
- 2) Plan your Shots
- 3) Select the Location(s)
- 4) Develop the Schedule
- 5) Shoot
- 6) Edit Video

<https://invideo.io/blog/how-to-make-a-video/>

Script

- What you want to communicate
- Speaking points (refer to assignment guidelines)
 - Important facts from library research
 - Description of fieldsite and fieldwork experiences
 - Your main insight

<https://invideo.io/blog/how-to-make-a-video/>

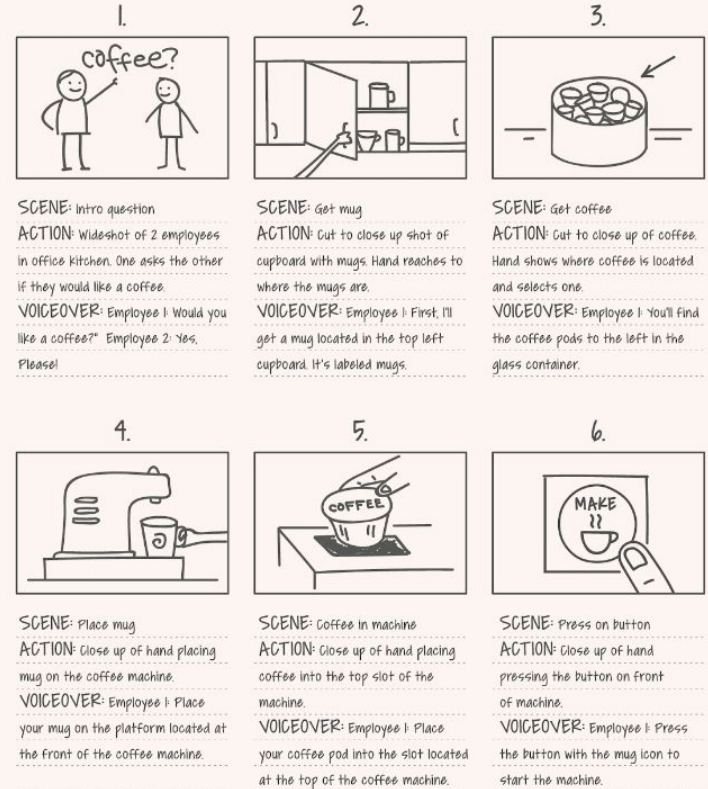

Storyboard or outline

- Once you know what you want to say, plan how you will say it “with video”
- Storyboard: timeline of scene sketches
- Outline: bulleted list of the scene descriptions

<https://invideo.io/blog/how-to-make-a-video/>

<https://newbluefx.com/blog/video-editing-terms/>

TITLE: How To Use The Coffee Machine

What kinds of footage do you want?

- Presentation: a “host” reciting a script
- B-roll: “background” footage you can cut to any time
- Cut-in: close-ups of an object a subject is interacting with

<https://invideo.io/blog/how-to-make-a-video/>

<https://newbluefx.com/blog/video-editing-terms/>

Make a shot list

- A storyboard or outline is a list of the shots and other information as it will appear in your video (as we discussed)
- A shot list is a planning document—it's your to-do list of each individual thing you will need to film
 - For each shot, you'll need to plan a location and time to film it

Location

- Permissions
 - Time constraints
 - Avoid filming people
- Background noise
- Lighting
- Northeastern production studios

<https://invideo.io/blog/how-to-make-a-video/>

Schedule

- Date and time for shoots
 - Location limitations
 - Room reservations
- Equipment rental (1 day)
- Buffer/makeup days
 - Weather
 - Transportation
- Time for editing

The screenshot shows the 'Tech Service Catalog' website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the Northeastern Information Technology Services logo and links for 'Explore Services', 'Find Answers', 'Report an Issue', 'Classrooms', 'Contact ITS', and 'Log in'. Below the navigation bar is a large banner image of students working on laptops, with the text 'Tech Service Catalog' and 'Find solutions in the service catalog.' Below the banner is a breadcrumb trail: 'Home > Service Catalog > Hardware Borrow/Return > Locker Services'. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column has a 'Northeastern Login' section with a 'Sign in with your account' button, and a 'Categories' section with links to 'Access and Security', 'Administration and Business', 'Communication, Collaboration, a...', 'Computing and Software', and 'Hardware Borrow/Return'. The middle column has a 'Technology' section, a 'Locker Services' section with text about contactless pickup and return, and a 'Borrowing Items' section with text about requesting a loan. The right column has a 'Request Services' section with a list of items: '13-inch MacBook Pro', 'Infocus projector', 'Microsoft Surface Laptop 3', 'Ricoh Theta', 'Samsung 340', and 'Sony HandyCam'. The 'Sony HandyCam' item is highlighted with a red box. At the bottom right of the right column is a red 'Chat' button.

Technology

Locker Services

Contactless pickup or return of short-term equipment loans and repairs using smart lockers.

Certain hardware items, including laptops and cameras, are available to borrow in a safe and hygienic way for short-term use. Smart lockers enable contactless pickup and return of loaned items and also facilitate computer and warranty repair services and return of smaller hardware items borrowed from ITS vending machines. Computer and warranty repair services will resume in the near future.

Borrowing Items

Under the "Request Services" module, select an item that is available to borrow from the smart lockers in Snell Library. For charging cables and other smaller hardware items, visit the vending machines at the Blue and Green locations in Snell.

To request a loan, select an item from the list at right, and log in with your Northeastern

Vocabulary review

- Script: the key information you want to convey, including specific words you want to use in narration (first document for video production)
- Storyboard or outline: two ways of planning out how your script will be connected to specific shots you'll film (second document you'll write)
- Shot: a single short video recording
- Shot List: a to-do list for all the shots you will need to create the video you've planned (third document you'll write)
- The Rule of Thirds: placing focal points at thirds in the image
- Cut-in: displays an object the subject is interacting with
- B-Roll: “background” or secondary footage you can cut to any time

Avoiding common pitfalls

*Feel free to ask questions at any point
during the presentation!*

Common pitfalls: image

- Avoid bright lights in your shot—they will make everything else look dark
 - Outside, move so the sun is to the left or right of a person—not right in their face to make them squint, but not behind them
 - Inside, check for a lamp or a bright window and consider moving so they are just outside the shot
- Record “extra” footage at the beginning and end of each shot (this makes it easier to edit it later)

Common pitfalls: sound

- Background noise: Your microphone may hear a lot more than you do!
 - Record a “sound test” of “nothing” and listen to see if it’s acceptable
- Turn off A/C units, consider closing windows, etc, if you can
- Mute device notifications

The screenshot shows the Canva website's top navigation bar. It includes the Canva logo, links for Design spotlight, Business, Education, Plans and pricing, and Learn. A search bar is present with the text "Search thousands of templates". On the right, there are "Log in" and "Sign up" buttons. A blue box highlights these buttons, with a callout pointing to them that says "Click Log in or Sign up". Below the navigation bar, the breadcrumb "Home > Video Editor" is visible. The main heading is "Free Online Video Editor". Below it, a paragraph describes Canva's features: "Create engaging videos with Canva's drag-and-drop interface, easy recording, and library of clips, audio & animations. Collaborate in real-time. Edit in the browser or app. Fast-track creation with powerful AI tools." A blue box highlights the "Edit a video" button, with a callout pointing to it that says "Start editing". At the bottom, there is a large purple banner with the text "Thank you".
